Open Exhibition Brief

The Art of Music.

The human relationship between music and art is a long one with the earliest examples being cave paintings in France and Spain circa 15,000 B.C showing people thought to playing instruments.

Much has been written about the music and visual art connection ranging from art history guides, stories involving famous paintings, filming of famous performances to the biographies of musicians.

Many people hear music in their dreams, and some see colours when they hear music, a condition known as synaesthesia.

Do you have a favourite album artwork, musical instrument, or portrait of a musician? Have you ever wanted to illustrate or paint a song lyric? Have you photographed or sketched any live music performances? Have you created any type of artwork including sculpture or film inspired by a piece of music?

We are looking forward to seeing your music inspired submissions to join our annual local artist showcase

Marketing Information for Exhibitors

Social Media

When promoting your work on your social media platforms please tag Atkins Building using @AtkinsBuilding on Instagram and Facebook and don't forget to provide your social media tags to the Atkins Team so your work can be tagged in social media posts.

Events

The Gallery will host other functions on some occasions so this area may be utilised for children's activities, indoor markets, business events, and community events etc. This will not intentionally impede the works on display but may result in some works being partially concealed or moved temporarily. The exhibition will be promoted alongside the event.

Artist Statements

You can write your own artist statement to accompany your artwork – this will be displayed as part of the exhibition and provides extra insight into your work. It is your choice whether you would like to write a description for each individual piece or write one general statement outlining your approach to the brief. You can include your inspiration, techniques or medium used etc.

Please email your artist statement(s) to info@atkinsbuilding.co.uk in advance (before the submission dates) so these can be prepared for the exhibition.

If possible please email some jpg images of your artwork to be used in promotional material in the run-up to the exhibition.
